High Purity (≥ 95%):

Our Active Cytokines have exceptional purity levels, ensuring that your experiments are based on the most reliable and uncontaminated biological reagents.

Supporting Documentation:

Transparency is key to successful research. Biorbyt provides supporting documentation, empowering you with the knowledge you need for your experiments.

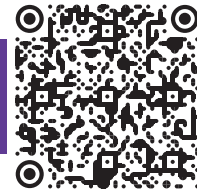

Low Endotoxin Levels (below 1.0 EU/μg):

Your research deserves the best, which is why our Active Cytokines come with low endotoxin levels. Minimize unwanted interference and achieve cleaner, more precise results.

Batch to Batch Consistency:

Experience peace of mind with our commitment to batch-to-batch consistency. Each reagent you receive is held to the same high standards, ensuring reproducibility and reliability in your scientific pursuits.
